JAPS CAPTURE TOWN BUT FEAR TO ENTER

Russians Left Mines--Sevastopol Re- ported Destroyed.

London, Dec. 31.—A dispatch from Chefoo to the Telegraph says: "A messenger from Port Arthur states that the Japanese have mounted eight guns in commanding positions north of the Elbe forts, but they suffered heavy losses by Russian fire. The Russians have abandoned the new town, but the Japanese are unable to occupy it because of the fear that it has been mined."

TWO THEATRICAL TROOPS ARRIVE

Holly Toity and Sam T. Jack Companies Both Here Today.

Manager of Jack Company Seeks a Lawyer and Then Resorts to Arbitration.

"HOLLY TOITY" WILL PLAY.

The "Holly Toity" company arrived this morning from Cairo over the I. C., and the Sam T. Jack company came in at 11:20 from the Memphis division of the same road.

This was the beginning of the threatened war between the managers of these two companies and Manager J. E. English, of the Kentucky theatre.

It is doubtless recalled that the manager of the Sam T. Jack company claims he is entitled to put his show on at the Kentucky tonight and Manager English claims not, as he notified him of the cancellation several weeks ago, writing six separate letters. The manager of "Holly Toity" is not particularly interested in the squabble, as there is no doubt as to his being booked for tonight.

The members of the two companies distributed themselves among the various hotels, and one of the first things Manager Harris of the Sam T. Jack company did was to call on Attorney Hendrick & Miller. He intended to at once take out an injunction to prevent the "Holly Toity" company from playing at the Kentucky, but was advised to see Manager English and try to reach an amicable settlement.

This afternoon he and Manager English were closeted at the Kentucky, trying to settle the matter in a friendly way.

Manager J. E. English stated later that nothing would be done about the case. That the other company was in the house this afternoon seeing "Holly Toity" and he anticipated no further trouble.

One of the saddest sights of our day is when a man buries his nose in volumes of sermons or of sociology, so as to shut out the sight of the sorrowing.

THE POST-OFFICE SHOWS OUR GROWTH

Increase in December Business of Nearly 50 Per Cent.

It Is Estimated That 700 New Houses
Have Been Built in the Carrier
Limits This Year.

HOW TO SEND VALUABLE MAIL.

Nothing better gauges the growth of the business of a city than the business done at the postoffice. A great increase is shown in all the departments of the local office for the month of December, over previous years, as shown by the following figures:

Registry Business.

Received for delivery during the month of December, up to and including the 28th last, 1904, 1,410 parcels. Same period 1903, 1,125 parcels.—Increase, 285.

Number of registered articles despatched in December, 1904, up to and including the 28th, was 855, while for the same period, 1903, only 603 were despatched.—an increase of 252, or nearly 50 per cent.

The largest number of articles registered in one day last year was on the 23rd day of December, being 115, while the largest number this year was 139, on the 22nd of this month.

Special Delivery Business.

The number of pieces for special delivery arriving in the office during December, 1904, up to and including the 28th, was 339, for the same period last year, 300, an increase of 39.

The number of pieces delivered on Christmas Eve this year was 35, and last year 14.

The number of pieces delivered on Christmas day this year was 42, last year 17.

Money Order Business.

The number of money orders paid in December, including the 28th, 1904, was 1,913, and the same period last year, 1,538, an increase of 375.

The number of orders issued in December, including the 28th, 1904, 1,222, and for the same period last year it was 1,217, showing an increase of only 5.

Sale of Stamps.

The receipts from the sale of stamps for December to the 28th, 1904, were $4,585. The receipts from the sale of stamps for December to the 28th, 1903, were $3,630, an increase of $955.00.

The same increase was noticeable in the number of ordinary packages received and despatched.

Many New Houses Built.

A count by the carriers during the first six months of the year showed a total of 350 new houses within the carrier limits. It is a very conservative estimate that since July 1st, at least 150 more have been built, making a total of 500 houses within the delivery limits of the letter carriers. Estimating that at least 200 were built outside of the carrier limits, we have a total of 700 new houses put up within the city during the past twelve months.

How to Send Valuables.

The postoffice authorities would like for the public to remember one thing about sending valuable matter through the mails. Many people do it by special delivery stamp, which affords them no protection. Instead they should register valuable letters and packages, which costs only 8 cents, two cents less than a special delivery stamp.

It is not known how people got the idea into their heads that special delivery stamps insured the safe delivery of a letter or package. It does not, but only insures its prompt delivery when it reaches its destination, while a registered letter can always be traced back should it be lost or stolen.

Dishonest persons handling mail, of which there are fortunately few, have learned to let the registered letters alone, and take the ones with special delivery stamps instead, as they have ascertained that more valuable things are sent this way than by the only safe way—registered letter or package—and they run little or no risk in taking the special delivery goods.

The dry flour of honesty will keep other people's dough from sticking to your fingers.

WEEK'S NEW BUSINESS

The Banks Declare Their Dividends

Bank clearings this week...$528,353
Same week last year..... 549,600

The directors of the local banks held meetings today and cleared their semi-annual dividends. The City National declared a 6 per cent., the Citizens' Savings, 4 per cent., the American-German, 4 per cent., the First National, 7 per cent., and the Mechanics' and Farmers', 2 1-2 per cent. The Globe and the Paducah Banking Co. passed their regular dividends, carrying the earnings forward to their profit and loss accounts. The six months just closed has been the most prosperous period for most of the banks and clearings for the year show a big increase over last year. The total clearings for the year will probably total $31,000,000.

The banks will be closed Monday. Mr. L. S. DuBois will assume the presidency of the Paducah Banking Co. January 1, and Mr. Henry Overton will also assume active connection with the management of the first of the year.

Mr. Robert E. Little, who has been the local manager of R. G. Dnn & Co., for the past three years has resigned and will be succeeded by Mr. Jas. H. Saunders. The change will become effective on the first of the year. Mr. Little will continue in the service of the agency at another point.

Mr. Saunders has been in the service of the company for over twenty years at Louisville and is a man of wide experience and ability, insuring the losses not being some issues. American was especially weak.

AMERICAN GIRL

Weds a Japanese Sailor At Washington, D. C.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Kisogo Sato, a native Japanese and a sailor on the Dolphin, was married here Wednesday night at the Wilson Memorial church to Miss Helen Ray Campbell, who is from New York.

The Dolphin is here just now, but it is expected that it will be sent to the New York navy yard where the couple will be even happier than they are at present.

Miss Campbell came to Washington from New York on Tuesday and procured the necessary license. Because of his duties on ship board Sato could not attend to the preliminaries. The American spirit of the bride-to-be asserted itself, however, and it was not long before she was negotiating with the clerk of the court for the paper. When she had obtained this Miss Campbell went to Mr. Lamar and arranged for the ceremony. Neither Miss Campbell nor Mr. Sato were attended by any of their friends.

The romance which had its happy culmination in Wednesday night wedding began some months ago in Brooklyn where the Dolphin was stationed during the summer for repairs. Mrs. Sato will return to New York shortly, but it is expected she will eventually come to the capital to live.

matic work, and W. A. Whitecar, in the role of Lord Lumley, gives to the character a finish and impressiveness so natural and realistic that one wonders if it is not his own life he is living before them. His trionicism has been benefitted in the introduction of a character study such as Giuseppe, who enters as a shade over the life of Signor D'Orelli, and in it.

Lewis' interpretation of the cult role is reached the acme of, of forceful expression, yet the simple dignity affecting of the peasant class. The company is exceptionally danced, and to single out one and forth prominently would not do them all. From the evoked it is evident that theater-goers were thoroughly pleased alike with the of the play and the superiority of the play.

The famous young stars, "The Lyman Twin Brothers," who have jumped with wonderful strides to the front rank as comedians, and who we will have the pleasure of seeing Thursday night in their new comedy, "At the Races," which is said to be one of the finest and most complete musical comedy productions of the day, are comedians in a class by themselves, and entertainers who deal out comedy lines and situations in a way seldom seen.

Their new vehicle, "At the Races," is the most elaborate production in which they have yet appeared. Carrying a large company, singers and dancers, together with a beautiful array of scenic and electrical effects complete. The flirtation song, the poppy girls and the country maidens are novelties which are original with this attraction.

Mr. John C. Fisher, who will present "San Toy" in this city next Saturday with James T. Powers at the head of the big company, has made a very large fortune in the past few years with musical comedies, and could have made much greater profits if his ideas of play production were less extravagant. If there is one thing more than another which Mr. Fisher likes, however, it is to do things right and let the cost be what it may. It is strict compliance with this policy that caused him to immediately engage James T. Powers, George K. Fortescue and as many members of the original American cast as he could find when he decided last summer to make a big production of "San Toy." Something like twenty weeks of the time that this musical comedy will be on the road this season will be spent in territory where it has never before been presented, and while less expensive artists might fill the bill in the estimation of some managers, Mr. Fisher's views are different and he wanted just as many originals as he could get. Then he caused a complete new production to be made, throwing away everything in the way of scenery and costumes that had been used before, and when everything was in readiness for the opening of the season he felt that nothing had been overlooked. In this the newspapers and public concurred, so when "San Toy" is offered on the local stage a genuine treat may be looked for.

"Holly Tolly," one of Weber and Fields' most wonderful creations, which is at The Kentucky tonight.

has been aptly termed "The Mighty Monarch of Merry Musical Plays." This is not surprising when one considers Weber & Fields' manner of doing things. The book is by Edgar Smith, the music by John Stromberg, and all the distinctly original and unique stage business taught by Julian Mitchell, has been retained.

The Good Old Way.

A severe cold or attack of influenza is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overpower it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to give a good old-fashioned reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Boschee's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater household favor than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old-fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, allays the irritation, and effectively stops the cough. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. To Chop Down Trees. William Poston, colored, was given permission this morning to chop down two old dead thorn trees on the new city hospital property for the wood he gets out of it. He appeared at the city hall and offered to do the work if the city would permit him to cut the wood on the ground. The trees would have been cut down anyway before the hospital was brought into service, and the mayor thinks he struck a bargain.

THE STREET WORK MUST BE FINISHED

Engineer Washington Serves Formal Notice on Contractors.

Bitulitic Men May Work Tomorrow Because of the Pretty Weather This Forecasts.

OTHER CONTRACTOR NOTIFIED.

"This morning I sent for Foreman Bailey, of the Bitulitic Contracting company," Engineer L. A. Washington stated this morning, "and urged him to begin work of finishing Broadway at once. Supr. Nichols is out of the city and Mr. Bailey did not want to begin work until he returns. He is expected back today, and on arrival will, I have been assured, begin the work. The work will require about three days more if the weather keeps up and I want the contractors to hurry and work tomorrow, if they will, for this weather will not last."

"In regard to the pavements, I notified Mr. Terrell, who sublet the contract to the bitulitic people, that he must grade the pavements and he in turn had notified the sub-contractors. If the work is not begun by Tuesday, I will take a force of men and do the work myself."

Engineer Washington seems intent on getting the work done, and declares he will carry out his plans if the contractors do not begin again.

on the pavements by Tuesday.

A member of the new boards who will qualify with the others next week said today that he anticipated no trouble or discord, although the newspapers had hinted there was likely to be.

"We are elected to serve the people," he declared, "and hope to do it in a satisfactory way. We have half the votes, and all we ask is a fair division. The democrats can take their choice of the two chairmanships, and give us the other. We want only what we are entitled to, and hope there will be no hesitancy about giving it to us."

The city supervisors will convene Monday at the city hall in annual session. Their time is limited by law to four weeks, but as the administration is not in the habit of allowing the law to worry it, it is not known how long the board will be in session. Once they remained in session two months or longer. The charter says they must meet the first Monday in January, and this is why they are to begin work on the legal New Year. Messrs J. V. Greif, Alonzo Exelott and Ed. Ashbrook are the supervisors.

No Decision.

Justice Sears yesterday afternoon heard evidence in the case against City Physician Robert Hivers for alleged obscene language used on the occasion of his visit to Huntington Row recently to investigate cases of smallpox. Mrs. Reed and daughter swore that he said the doctor that failed to report the cases "ought to have his d---d head blown off," and Dr. Hivers denied using the language. Justice Sears announced that he would announce his decision Monday.

THE CURTAIN FALLS.

Over the sorrow, and over the bliss,
Over the teardrop, over the kiss,
Over the crimes that blotted and blurred,
Over the wound of an angry word,
Over the deeds in weakness done,
Over the battles lost and won,
Now at the end of the flying year
(Year that tomorrow will not be here),
Over freedom, over our thrills,
In the dark and the midnight—the curtain falls.

Over our gain, and over our loss,
Over our crown, and over our cross,
Over the fret of our discontent,
Over the ill that was never meant,
Over the scars of our self-denial,
Over the strength that conquered trial—
Now in the end of the dying year,
Year that tomorrow will not be here,
Quietly final, the prompter calls,
Over it swiftly the curtain falls.

Morituri Salutamus.

Surely the Old Year has made a gallant showing this week, and has kept step with the liveliest pace of younger days. It is hard to realize as we glance through the social calendar that these crowded strenuous days record our last glimpse of him, and one is glad that it is not a feeble, halting Old Year, that we must push off, but one who ever, as he "is about to die salutes" us and steps off unfalteringly, the strong man still, and seeking to give pleasure to the very last. One would not like a craven cowardly Old Year loth to go, afraid to venture out into the great beyond. He leaves us gallantly and the social calendar for 1901 is closed.

Young 1905 will take his place tonight. May he make as true a friend, as cheery a comrade, in joy and sorrow.

The young lady daughter of the house, Miss Evelyn Maret, received the guests, assisted by her young sister, Miss Lillie May Maret, Mrs. H. C. King and Miss Lillian Leque. Standard Club.

The inaugural reception of the Standard club in the handsome new club rooms of the Weille building on Monday evening was a very notable function. Dancing and card playing were the features of the evening from 9:30 p. m. to 2 a. m. An elegant banquet with covers for 75 was served at 12 o'clock at the Palmer house. It was in five courses and the Christmas idea was effectively emphasized in the decorations of the table and in the menu.

Mrs. Dorian is a born teacher and her personality and power are evidenced in the very fine school she has built in so short a time. This year has an encouraging outlook for greater success. There are 35 pupils ranging in ages from 12 to 18 years and many of them from a distance.

and wharfmaster, etc., to the board of works, because the necessary ordinance had never been passed. This may be true, but why was not the ordinance passed? The charter plainly implies that it must be passed, and the boards have had plenty of time. The fact is that the general council didn't want the ordinance passed, and the mayor evidently didn't want it passed, or he would have said something about it before a time when he knew that of all times he would be least likely to get what he wanted.

The general council, however, has "hogged" it all. It clearly shows the principal object of the Veiser administration—getting and holding office, regardless of law, right or results.

The Southern Railway has been held responsible for a wreck in Indiana causing the deaths of eight people, and it will probably have to pay dearly for a penny-wise, pound-foolish policy of employing incompetent men to do important work. The coroner's jury said of it: "We further find that the officials of the Southern Railway, are responsible along with the other parties for hiring men weak both mentally and physically in positions of responsibility; and in this case hiring a man nearly dead with consumption, and a cripple, at a salary of only $40 a month, to do the work of two able-bodied men."

Chief Engineer Wallace, of the Panama canal, is not opposed to civil service in the canal zone, as reported. Instead of being against it, he is heartily in favor of it. The only reason known for the published statements about his alleged opposition is that it was a dull day and the Washington correspondents had to send out something.

Republicans all over the country seem to think that Colorado should give the governorship to the person entitled to it. We cannot well determine this far away who he is, but this is to be hoped that Colorado Republicans are able to attend to their own affairs.

One good thing is that when the members of the council take executive seats, those city officials who have the habit of taking about ten minutes more time as necessary to of the super-do a thing will soon get all that is coming to them.

Japanese occupation of Port Arthur is still only on paper. Probably the Japs are waiting now for All Fools' day, and intend to then spring the capture of the stronghold on a waiting world.

The mayor thinks a man has a right to be both a city supervisor and street inspector. The taxpayers disagree with the mayor. No man can hold two offices at the same time, even if one does not pay any salary at all.

That "money to burn" claim of some of the city officials has resolved itself into a deficit on the year of about $12,000. Perhaps they meant the money has already been burned.

Those sidewalks on Broadway haven't been built yet. It is noticed

Schools Begin Closing.

The county schools will from now until next March gradually close, the first to close being the school near Wallace park, in charge of S. J. Blington, which has already closed. The building in District 25, where there has been such dissension, has not been reopened.

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP. RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

LA GRIPPE is epidemic catarrh. It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the classes are alike subject to la grippe. None are exempt—all are liable.

Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, has been shortened by the busy American to "grip." Without intending to do so a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some mischievous giant with awful cunning had clutched us in its fatal clasp. Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of a terrible monster.

The following letters speak for themselves.

what it is, serving on public boards a number of times. He endorses Peruna in the following words:

"I am 68 years old, am hale and hearty, and Peruna has helped me attain it. Two years ago I had la grippe—my life was despaired of. Peruna saved me."—J. H. Gull.

A Relative of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Elias S. Lincoln, who resides at 613 E. Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., has the honor of being third cousin to Abraham Lincoln. He writes:

"I had la grippe five times before using your medicine. Four years ago I began the use of Peruna, since which time I have not been troubled with that disease. I can now do as much work at my desk as I ever could in my life. I have gained more than ten pounds in weight."—E. S. Lincoln.

Pe-ru-na Not Only Cured La Grippe but Benefited the Whole System.

Miss Alice M. Brosser, 1213 N. Bryant Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes: "Last spring I suffered from la grippe and was partially cured but the bad after effects remained through the summer and somehow I did not get strong as I was before. One of my college friends who was visiting me asked me to try Peruna and I did so and found it all and more than I had expected. It not only cured me of the catarrh but restored me to perfect health, built up the entire system and brought a happy feeling of buoyancy which I had not known for years."—Alice M. Brosser.

An Actress' Testimonial.

Miss Jean Cowgill, Griswold Opera House, Troy, N. Y., is the leading lady with the Aubrey Stock Co. She writes the following:

"During the past winter of 1901, I suffered for several weeks from a severe attack of grippe, which left a serious catarrhal condition of the throat and head.

"Some one suggested Peruna. As a last resort, after wasting much time and money on physicians, I tried the remedy faithfully, and in a few weeks was as well as ever."—Jean Cowgill.

A Southern Judge Cured.

Judge Horatio J. Goss, Hartwell, Ga., writes:

"Some five or six years ago I had a very severe spell of grippe, which left me with systemic catarrh. A friend advised me to try your Peruna which I did, and was immediately benefited and cured. The third bottle completed the cure."—H. J. Goss.

"If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

WAS KILLING OF JESSE INGRAM
NEAR OAKS NIGHT BEFORE LAST.

Case Called in Police Court This Morning and Continued Till Monday.

Rufe Neece, colored, who was arrested yesterday for the alleged murder of Jesse Ingram, colored, near Oaks, this county, was arraigned in the police court this morning for murder and the case continued until Monday on account of the absence of witnesses.

There is a strong case against Neece, according to Coroner Crow, who held an inquest yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The evidence showed that the two men fell out over a dime Ingram wouldn't pay as the admission price for his wife to a church entertainment, and came near fighting on the first night, last Tuesday, Ingram having a knife up his sleeve. It is alleged.

The killing was Thursday night, when they were all at another church party. At that time the two men quarreled again, but no one was found who would admit seeing the shooting. Some claim that a rock fell near Neece, coming apparently from where Ingram stood, about the time the pistol shots were fired. After the shooting the men clinched and rolled out the door, and there were not many negroes left in the neighborhood after that. The verdict of the coroner's jury was:

"We, the jury, find upon investigation and the evidence, that Jesse Ingram, whose dead body we have viewed, came to his death by a pistol shot supposed to have been fired by Rufe Neece on the night of December 29th, 1904, in a house in McCracken county. (Signed.)

WHAT MORLEY SAW.
President Roosevelt and Niagara Falls Impressed Him.

London, Dec. 31.—The Speaker, a weekly periodical recounting some of John Morley's experiences in America, says the distinguished member of parliament was asked what most impressed him on the other side of the Atlantic. He replied "Niagara Falls and President Roosevelt. Both give you the impression of going on forever."

Mrs. Gus Coulter, Miss Bernice Frost and Judge Bunk Gardner, of Mayfield, are in the city this afternoon.

Cardigan

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

Copyright, 1901, by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

What he had told me of Cade Henard troubled me. If Felicity had been strangely lost to her own family and had been restored, doubtless she was now happy and full of wonder for the dear, numbing chance that had brought to her those honored parents she had so long deemed to be dead. Yet she must be shy and reserved also, having been brought up to believe she had no nearer kin than Sir Peter Warren. And now that he, after all, was so kind to her, she to us, if a mad forest runner like Cade Henard should come to vex her with his hazy fancies it might hurt her or seem like reproach and mockery for her new parents.

"Do you think Cade followed Miss Warren to Boston?" I asked.

"My journey is to find that out," he said. "Ab, lad, a noble mind was wrecked in Henard's head."

My candle was burning very low now. Mount hid his pipe in the candle pan, rose, shook himself and said good night.

By noon the next day we were all on our way toward Boston, I riding beside Mrs. Hamilton's carriage wheels.

At Stratton we halted at the Westchester tavern, then on along the Charles river, with the scent of the distant sea in every breath we drew, through Dedham, past Needham and north into a most lovely country of rolling golden stubble and orchards all red with apples, and bridges of stone neatly fashioned to resist the freshets.

I shall never forget that first coming to Boston and the first glimpse of the round city set there in the sea with only a narrow thread of land to fasten it to the continent which had made the city's cause its own. Nor shall I forget my first sight of the city's landward gate, closed by British earthworks, patrolled by British bayonets, with the red standard flying in the setting sun.

The Philadelphia coach, with passengers from Maryland and Virginia, came swaying up. I glanced up at the outside travelers, thinking I might know some face among them, yet not expecting it. There were no familiar faces. I wheeled my horse to watch the coach go by, glancing idly at the window where a young girl leaned out, sucking a China orange. Our eyes met for a moment; the girl dropped the orange and stared at me; I also eyed her sharply, certain that I had seen her somewhere in the world before this. The coach passed. I sat on my horse looking after it, coddling my wits to remember that red-checked, buxom lass, who seemed to know me too.

Then as our chaise rattled by, with the postboys urging the horses and Jack Mount on the box, it came to me in a flash that the girl was the thief Jack's daughter from Fort Pitt.

I rode up beside Mount and told him in a low voice that Bully Bishop's buxom lass was ahead of us in the Philadelphia coach and that he had best keep his wits and eyes cleared for Bully Bishop himself.

He shrugged his shoulders, not answering, but I noticed he was alert enough now, unconsciously fidgeting his ride, while his quick eyes scanned restlessly as the chaise passed in between the British earthworks on the west.

The gate guards eyed us solemnly as we drove into the city and up a long, dusty road called Orange street. We continued to Newbury street, to Marlborough street, Mount directing us, thence through Cornhill to Queen street, where we drew up at a very quaint mansion.

Dismounting, I took Mrs. Hamilton from the carriage, and she unmasked, the fire was dying out in the west.

"If," she began slowly, "I should like you to supper at my house would you hurt me with refusal, Michael?"

"Is this your house?" I asked in surprise.

"Yes—my late husband's. Will you come?"

Explained that I cared not to leave it and that also we must seek it as soon as might be, for we had business on the morrow which we could not wait.

Attended with a faintly mocking when thanked me for my escort, and Mount for his share in procuring me as her escort by stopping the carriage, and finally courtesied, saying in a low voice: "Your charming Miss Warren is doubtless impatient. Pray believe me that I wish you joy of your conquest."

I thought she meant it, and it touched me. But when I stepped to her doorway to conduct her she turned on me like a flash, and I saw her eyes all wet and brilliant and her teeth crushing her under lip.

"For a charming journey in my own company, I thank you," she said. "For your concert and your insufferable airs I will find a remedy. Remember that: My humiliation under your own roof is not forgotten, Mr. Cardigan, and it shall not be forgotten until you pay me dearly."

The post chaise had driven off into the mews when I returned to the street, but Jack Mount was waiting for me, putting Warlock, whose beautiful head had swung around to watch for my coming.

"Well, Jack?" I asked wearily.

"The Wild Goose tavern is ours," he said. "Good cheer and company to match it."

I walked out into the paved street, leading Warlock. Mount swaggered along beside me, squaring his broad shoulders whenever we passed a soldier and whistling lustily. "Tryon County Men!" all the stony streets rang with the melody.

There was not a soul abroad in the streets, not a light to be seen save from one low, low building standing midway between Chambers and Wiltshire streets, an ancient, discolored, rambling structure, with a weather-vane atop and a long pillared porch in front, from which hung a bush of seaweed and a red signboard depicting a creature which doubtless was intended for a wild goose.

"Lord, Jack," I said, "Shepherd's Head and Cuckoo appeared preferable to your Wild Goose yetter. I'm minded to seek other quarters."

"Never trust to the looks o' things," he laughed.

I led Warlock into the mews to a clean, well aired stable, where an ostler bedded and groomed him and shook out a pretty handful of grain as I had seen since I left Johnson Hall.

Then Mount and I went into the tavern, where half a dozen sober citizens in string wigs sat idly smoking clay pipes with stems full three feet long.

"Good evening, the company!" said Mount pleasantly.

The men repeated his salutation and looked at us sleepily over their pipes.

"God save our country, gentlemen," said Mount, standing still in the center of the room.

Presently the landlady came in, glanced silently around, saluted Mount with a quiet bow, paid his respects to me in a similar manner and whispered that we might sup at our pleasure in the "square room" above.

"Good evening, the company!" said Mount pleasantly.

So, with a salute to the company, we rose and left the taproom to the silent smokers of the long pipes.

BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED DURING YEAR

The Total Was 238 Inside City Limits.

The Amount Will Reach $181,477—Police Made Many Arrests This Month.

THE FIRE LOSS IS SMALL.

City Engineer L. A. Washington today completed his annual report. During the month of December he issued a total of 16 permits ranging from $50 to $4,000. This has been a good month for building considering the fact that it is one of the coldest of the winter months, when building circles are generally dead.

"My report for the year will show a total of 238 permits issued and the total amount will reach $181,477," Engineer Washington explained. "Last year I issued a total of 273 permits but the total amount of money expended in these buildings will fall short of this year. It amounted last year to only $171,905, so you see that while this year had fallen short in permits, the class of buildings has been better and the improvements better. The increase in value is about $10,000."

Hospital Reports.

The two hospitals had a quiet month and report very little illness.

At the railroad hospital there were 32 patients at the beginning of the month, with 60 admitted. At the close today there were but 30 patients in the hospital. Two deaths occurred during the month.

At the city hospital, at the beginning of the month, there were 7 patients, admitted during month 16, at close 4. One death occurred during the month.

In regard to the general health of the city, the doctors say it has been very good. "Sickness has been very light during this month," a prominent physician declared, "and we have had little work to do. I think it has been a remarkable month and every other doctor says so, too."

Police Report.

The police report has not been completed for the month as today's and tonight's arrests have to be added, but the following arrests had been made up until noon today:

Rape, 1; cruelty to animals, 1; breach of peace, 35; present pistol, 2; murder, 3; suspect, 2; breach of peace, 23; insulting language, 2; drunk and disorderly, 12; petty larceny, 12; grand larceny, 5; robbery, 3; vagrancy, 2; false swearing, 1; drunk, 42; violate Sabbath, 8; malicious shooting, 1; gaming, 1; malicious assault, 2; malicious cutting, 6; fugitive from justice, 1; house-breaking, 1; concealed weapon, 2; obtaining money, 2; indecent exposure, 1; selling liquor without license, 1. The total number of arrests is 172 for the month.

Sixteen Oak Grove Permits.

City Clerk Henry Bailey issued during December a total of sixteen burial permits. There were four colored and twelve white. There were more deaths but these all buried in the county.

Fire Losses.

The fire departments made fifteen runs during the month of December and the damage was very light. "We had no runs this month which will amount to anything," Chief Wood stated, "and the damage will amount to no more than a couple of hundred dollars, I think."

Tobacco Report.

Tobacco Inspector Ed. Miller has issued his monthly report, showing receipts for the month, 122 hogsheds, and receipts for the year, 8,790 hogsheds. Sales for the month, 255 hogsheds, and sales for the year, 9,628, which is 551 hogsheds better than for the preceding year. The shipments for the month were 329 hogsheds, and shipments for the year, 8,862. Stock on hand is 976 hogsheds, against 2,149 last year.

BUSY WEEK.

For Coroner James R. Crow—Four Inquests Held.

Coroner James R. Crow has certainly been busy this week, which is the fourth of his incumbency as coroner. He has held four inquests and has another in sight. Tonight the year 1904 will die, but Coroner Crow this morning laughingly denied that he would hold an inquest over it, as it is unnecessary.

Three of the inquests were over negroes, killed by pistol shots, one the child "Boots" on West Kentucky avenue, another, Will Stephens, killed by Will Dixon, and the other over Jesse Ingram, killed in the county yesterday, and the other was over the remains of a young lady who died of consumption.

"I was much afflicted with scalding," writes Ed C. Nod, Lawaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 50c, 25c and $1.00. Sold by DuBois, Kolh & Co.

$100 Reward Offered.

The Mayfield authorities have received word from Gov. Beckham that he has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of the unknown man found with his throat cut near Mayfield recently. The man was never identified.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectively clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is the Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe to get more and better charcoal lozenges than Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than any of the ordinary charcoal lozenges."

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are sold by all druggists and by the Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges Co., 111-113 North Fourth Street, Paducah, Ky.

North Third Street
HALF SQUARE FROM BROADWAY

THE most all around satisfactory and successful year in the history of our business has just closed. It has been a busy year, and our success has been magnificent, so it is but meet that we should wish to thank those who have given us success—the buying public of Paducah and vicinity. We want to assure you of our appreciation—we want to tell you that no store could feel more appreciative than we do.

For 1905 we have this to offer you:

We are going to try harder than ever before to merit your patronage. We are going to have even better, larger and more attractive stocks for you to select from. We are going to—always—price everything just as low as is consistent with conservative merchandising. In short, you can always look here for everything that is modern and progressive in the house-furnishing line.

We realize that the store that succeeds well is the store with the great, big list of satisfied customers. This we will bear in mind every minute during the new year, and we promise you right now that you will have no cause for complaint—for any reason—when you favor this store with your patronage.

To our old customers, then, we say that we will be more pleased than ever to see you in 1905. To those who have not tried trading here as yet, we say that we know you will like it when you try. To all, we say that we wish you the most prosperous and the happiest—least troublesome—New Year you have ever enjoyed.

MRS. ELIZABETH YOUNG.

PEPSIN SYRUP Co., Monticello, Ill.

Gentlemen:—Traveling on both continents, with irregular meals and often poorly prepared foods, totally disarranged my digestive organs and brought on inflammation of the intestines, until all my food distressed me exceedingly. I suffered with nausea, headaches and severe pains in the lower bowels. One doctor told me I had appendicitis and thought an operation was the only sure relief, but I could not consent to this.

Visiting my sister I found she was using Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin for indigestion, and I asked her to let me try it. I could hardly express my great joy in finding the pains gradually disappearing. I kept up the treatment for over two months, and every day I felt myself getting better and I am now in perfect health. Nothing I eat distresses me and I feel five years younger. I give all praise to your medicine, and have recommended it to a large number of my friends.

Very truly,
Mrs. Elizabeth Young,
4001 Vincennes Ave., Flat F., Chicago, Ill.
